SECTION III: NARRATIVE

BILL SUMMARY

This analysis is neither a formal Attorney General's Opinion nor an Attorney General's Advisory Letter. This is a staff analysis in response to an agency's, committee's, or legislator's request.

Synopsis:

Senate Bill 205 amends the Early Identification section of the Compulsory School Attendance Law to create an early warning system which alerts schools and parents to student absences in an effort to intervene and prevent habitual truancy.

Senate Bill 205 creates specific dates by which a truancy warning system must be implemented by schools and creates a truancy prevention team. It also imposes truancy reporting obligations on "the department".

Senate Bill 205 creates a penalty for habitual truancy that would suspend or deny the driving privileges of drivers under the age of 18. It also sets up a system of notice and appeal of such a penalty.

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS

Note: major assumptions underlying fiscal impact should be documented.

Note: if additional operating budget impact is estimated, assumptions and calculations should be reported in this section.

TECHNICAL ISSUES

- The Bill's placement of "definitions" in Section 2, after substantive law in Section 1, was confusing.
- The reference in Section 2 to the "Compulsory School Attendance Law" should have a citation to that law, Section 22-12-1 NMSA 1978. Or, alternately, "definitions" should be removed from this section of the Bill
- There is substantive law in Section 2 even though it is titled as "definitions".
